MAYOR OF LONDON

Brighten up your day this winter with a hearty meal or delicious cocktail at one of the many high quality and easy to reach bars and restaurants in East London and the Docklands. DLR has been asking locals and commuters to vote for their favourite eateries via social media and the top five are featured in this guide. DLR also teamed up with leading local bars to create some DLR-inspired cocktails for you to try. These cocktails will be available for a limited time only.

Top five restaurants as voted by you

1 Gordon Ramsay The Narrow

⇄ Limehouse

44 Narrow Street, E14 8DP

Receiving an overwhelming majority of the votes, this Gordon Ramsay owned pub proved a firm favourite. The Narrow is a delightful Grade II listed building enriched with history. Enjoy classic British pub dishes with hearty seasonal ingredients in the perfect setting with panoramic views of the river.

DLR passengers recommend the hanger steak!

2 Jamie's Italian

⇄ Canary Wharf

2 Churchill Place, E14 5RB

Jamie Oliver's first London Italian restaurant is gorgeous and versatile, providing a hub for business lunches as well as a local for residents and people visiting Canary Wharf. Enjoy rustic Italian dishes in an environment inspired by the 'Italian table'.

DLR passengers recommend the wild truffle risotto!

3 Gaucho Canary

⇄ Westferry/Canary Wharf

29 Westferry Circus, E14 8RR

Boasting a superb riverside location, the Gaucho Grill, Canary Wharf offers amazing river views and a large summer terrace for guests to enjoy alfresco drinking and dining. This is a top-notch Argentinean steak house with a superb wine selection, where you can experience the true essence of Argentinean life.

DLR passengers recommend the bife de ancho!

DLR-inspired cocktails

Available 01 Dec–31 Jan 2012, except 'Island Gardens', which is available now until 31 Dec 2011.

1 'South Quay Lime Pie Martini' from The Gun

⇄ South Quay/Blackwall

27 Coldharbour, Docklands, E14 9NS

South Quay Lime Pie Martini features Cariel vanilla vodka, Grand Marnier, pineapple juice, orgeat syrup, pasteurised egg white, lime cordial, fresh lime juice, crushed digestive biscuits and double cream.

The Gun is located in the heart of the Docklands and has a dining room in the main bar, a back bar with two snugs, two private dining rooms and a fantastic riverside terrace.

www.thegundocklands.com

2 'Island Gardens' from The Parlour

⇄ Canary Wharf/Heron Quays

40 Canada Square Park, E14 5FW

Island Gardens features Bloom gin, violette liqueur, pink grapefruit, Maraschino, lovage syrup & lavender bitters and egg white with edible flowers.

The parlour is a striking and innovative all-day bar and kitchen offering contemporary cocktails and a wide selection of wines. Music and a late licence until the early hours on Thursdays and Fridays make the parlour the place to start and end the party.

www.theparlourbar.co.uk

3 'Bank Spender' from Pause

⇄ Tower Gateway

80–84 Leadenhall Street, EC3A 3DH

Bank Spender features Clement Creole Shrub liqueur, Gran Centenario tequila, strawberry puree and raspberry puree.

Pause offers great cocktails, stunning interiors and a vibrant atmosphere creating the ultimate nightlife experience.

www.pause-bar.co.uk

4 'Cyprus Creampie' from Clause

⇄ Tower Gateway/Bank

1 Lovat Lane, off Eastcheap, EC3R 8DT

Cyprus Creampie features vodka, Mozart chocolate, Chase marmalade, double cream, chocolate bitters and orange juice.

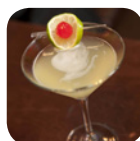

Clause is perfectly suited for every occasion, from working lunches to cocktail parties and celebratory dinners.

www.clause-bar.co.uk

5 'Limehouse' from Patch

⇄ Bank

58–60 Carter Lane, EC4V 5EA

Limehouse features limoncello, vodka, lime juice and honey syrup.

Patch is an eclectic mix, a combination of relaxed restaurant, cocktail and wine bar and contemporary club.
